Acknowledgements and Consents

Being smart about credit: Our lending policies and guidelines are designed to ensure we lend responsibly.

- Select your credit limit carefully.
- Always aim to pay off more than your monthly minimum amount, as making minimum payments is not an effective way to manage credit card debt.
- Make sure your credit limit is always realistic. Call us on 13 22 66 if you want to reduce your credit limit at any time and it will be effective immediately.
- If you find yourself having difficulty making your repayments please call us on 1800 600 266.

Privacy Statement

Personal information

We collect personal information from you to process your application, provide you with your product or service, and manage your product or service. We may also use your information to comply with legislative or regulatory requirements in any jurisdiction, prevent fraud, crime or other activity that may cause harm in relation to our products or services and help us run our business. We may also use your information to tell you about products or services we think may interest you.

If you do not provide all the information we request, we may need to reject your application or we may no longer be able to provide a product or service to you.

We may disclose your personal information to other members of the Westpac Group, anyone we engage to do something on our behalf and other organisations that assist us with our business.

We may disclose your personal information to an entity which is located outside Australia. Details of the countries where the overseas recipients are likely to be located are in our privacy policy.

As a provider of financial services, we have obligations to disclose some personal information to government agencies and regulators in Australia, and in some cases offshore. We are not able to ensure that foreign government agencies or regulators will comply with Australian privacy laws, although they may have their own privacy laws. By using our products or services, you consent to these disclosures.

We are required or authorised to collect personal information from you by certain laws. Details of these laws are in our privacy policy.

Our privacy policy is available at bankofmelbourne.com.au or by calling 13 22 66. It covers:

- how you can access the personal information we hold about you and ask for it to be corrected;
- how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles or a registered privacy code and how we will deal with your complaint;
- how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in more detail.

We will update our privacy policy from time to time.

Credit information

We may:

- obtain consumer credit information about you from a credit reporting body to enable us to assess your creditworthiness;
- exchange personal information and credit information about you with other credit providers to assess your application and creditworthiness and to notify them of any defaults by you;
- give or obtain a banker's opinion about you;
- if you are a proposed guarantor, obtain credit reporting information about you from a credit reporting body for the purpose of assessing whether to accept you as a guarantor.

To ensure we are meeting our requirements and to allow the most up-to-date information to be considered as part of the application process, we may be required to do any or all of these things on one or more occasions.

The privacy page of our website bankofmelbourne.com.au includes a "Statement of Notifiable Matters". These are matters you should be aware of in relation to the use and disclosure of your credit information. This statement includes:

- details of the credit reporting bodies to which we are likely to disclose your credit information, the types of credit information we may give them and how this information will be used;
- your rights over your credit information, including how you can access and correct your information and make complaints;
- your rights to direct a credit reporting body to limit the use of your information for direct marketing purposes and what protections are available if you believe you are a victim of fraud; and
- information about our Credit Reporting Policy.

You can call us on 13 22 66 or visit us in branch for a hard copy of the Statement of Notifiable Matters.

Other acknowledgments and consents

- We may confirm the details of the information provided in this application which includes contacting your employer to confirm salary, address or other personal details.
- Where you have provided information about another individual, you must make them aware of that fact and the contents of the Privacy Statement.
- This application form is not an offer or acceptance of credit.
