New to Bank of Melbourne Identification of Additional Signatories by Bank of Melbourne.

New to Bank of Melbourne

For security reasons, Bank of Melbourne must have identified all additional signatories before access to the account can be permitted. If you are not already an account holder or signatory in relation to a Westpac Group account, you will need to:

1. Complete the Authority to Operate Form, AND
2. Take the Authority to Operate Form and Identification to a Bank of Melbourne branch where we will confirm your identity, OR
3. Complete a "Certified Identification Form" and arrange for someone who satisfies the criteria for acceptable certifiers, noted on the form, to confirm your identity. The form details what type of identification can be produced. Once this is done, mail to the above address the Authority to Operate Form, the Certified Identification Form and the certified copies of the identification produced.
