Let us know what you think.

Feedback and complaints.
At Bank of Melbourne, we genuinely want to hear from you.

At Bank of Melbourne we welcome your suggestions, compliments and complaints as an opportunity to improve our service, provide feedback to our staff and put things right when we have let you down.

Making a suggestion.
If you have any suggestions you feel will enable us to provide you with better products and services, please let us know.

Making a compliment.
There is nothing so encouraging as a well-earned compliment. So if you have received exceptional service from Bank of Melbourne, please let us know so that we can pass on the compliment.

Making a complaint.
If you’re ever unhappy about something we’ve done – or perhaps not done – please give us the opportunity to put things right.

Our aim is to resolve your complaint within 5 working days, however, where possible we will resolve your complaint on the spot. If we need some additional time to get back to you, we will let you know. Should we be unable to resolve your concern at your first point of contact, we will then refer the complaint to our dedicated Customer Solutions team.

Our Customer Managers are here to find a solution for you and will ensure that you’re regularly updated about the progress we are making to resolve your complaint.

Your complaint will be reviewed in line with our fair go principles. See bankofmelbourne.com.au/fairgo

If you are in a branch:

👤 You can tell us in person.

If you are still unhappy.

If you are not satisfied with our response or handling of your complaint, you can contact the Bank of Melbourne Customer Advocate (Customer Advocate) or the external dispute resolution scheme, the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). Time limits apply to complain to AFCA. Please refer to AFCA’s website set out below for details.
Customer Advocate.

The role of the Customer Advocate is to provide an independent review of the outcome of your complaint. The Customer Advocate operates separately from our day to day business areas and its recommendations are binding on the bank. If you choose to contact the Customer Advocate first, you can still refer your complaint to AFCA if you remain dissatisfied. The Customer Advocate will advise you of the kinds of complaints they can help with.

The Bank of Melbourne Customer Advocate can be contacted by email or mail:

- [email] customeradvocate@bankofmelbourne.com.au
- Customer Advocate
  GPO Box 1
  Sydney NSW 2000

Please include the following information in your correspondence to the Customer Advocate;

- Your customer number and complaint reference number
- Your preferred contact details
- A brief description of your complaint.

Australian Financial Complaints Authority.

The Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) is not part of Bank of Melbourne. AFCA provides a free and independent service to resolve complaints by consumers and small businesses about financial firms (e.g. banks), where that complaint falls within AFCA’s terms of reference.

The contact details for AFCA are set out below.

Australian Financial Complaints Authority:

- Online: www.afca.org.au
- Email: info@afca.org.au
- Phone: 1800 931 678 (free call)
- Mail: Australian Financial Complaints Authority
  GPO Box 3
  Melbourne VIC 3001
