Retail and Business Banking Financial Services Guide, Credit Guide and Privacy Statement.

Preparation Date: 8 July 2019

Bank of Melbourne – A Division of Westpac
Banking Corporation ABN 33 007 457 141
AFSL and Australian credit licence 233714.

About this Guide.

This is a Financial Services Guide, Credit Guide and Privacy Statement (Guide) to help you decide whether to use the financial and consumer credit services offered by Bank of Melbourne.

It contains information about:

- Some of the financial services and products we can offer you, including details of any remuneration, commission or other benefits that may be paid to Bank of Melbourne or other relevant persons in relation to those services.
- The consumer credit services and products we can offer you.
- Our internal and external dispute resolution procedures and how you can access them.

In this Guide, the words “we”, “our”, “us” and “Bank of Melbourne” refer to Bank of Melbourne – A Division of Westpac Banking Corporation. References to the “Westpac Group” mean Westpac Banking Corporation and all its related bodies corporate.

Some other documents you might get from us.

Disclosure Documents.

When we provide advice about a financial product which takes your specific needs, objectives or financial situation into account (personal advice), or offer, issue, or arrange a financial product, we'll usually give you a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) or Terms and Conditions (T&Cs). The PDS includes information to help you make an informed decision about whether to purchase the product, including information about any significant benefits and risks of the product, and its cost. You may also receive other product documentation, including T&Cs regarding a specific product. Please ensure you carefully read and understand the PDS and/or T&Cs (where relevant) for a product before making a decision to use or acquire that particular product.

Other Financial Services Guides.

Bank of Melbourne also provides other financial services that are not covered by this Guide. If you are interested in these services, you may receive an additional Financial Services Guide.

Information about our financial services and products.

Bank of Melbourne is authorised to provide you with financial product advice about and deal in certain financial products, including:

- Banking products, such as deposit accounts and payment facilities.
- Insurance products.
- Financial and debt markets and international products (including foreign exchange accounts and contracts).
- Superannuation.

In general, when we provide financial services, we act on our own behalf. However, when we issue insurance products on behalf of an insurer that is part of the Westpac Group, as outlined on pages 4 and 5 of this Guide, we act on the insurer's behalf.

We are responsible for the financial services we provide under our financial services licence.

Relationships and Associations.

Bank of Melbourne has a number of associations with entities within the Westpac Group, as well as associations with external product issuers, referrers, brokers and other third parties.

Westpac General Insurance Limited ABN 99 003 719 319 and Westpac Life Insurance Services Limited ABN 31 003 149 157, who issue some of the products referred to in this Guide, are part of the Westpac Group.

Providing instructions to Bank of Melbourne.

You can contact Bank of Melbourne by using the contact details set out on the back page of this Guide. Some products and services may have their own rules around how to provide instructions or carry out certain transactions. Please refer to the PDS or T&Cs for your product for these details.

Fees, commissions and benefits paid and received by Bank of Melbourne.

Product issuers receive product fees and may be entitled to certain expense reimbursements if you invest in or purchase their products.

The PDS or T&Cs for each of these products may disclose further details in respect of the fees, commissions and benefits paid and received by us.

You may request the details of any benefits payable in respect of any product or service you receive. If you receive personal advice, more detailed information about fees, commissions or other benefits payable will be contained in the relevant PDS or T&Cs for the product.

The insurance PDSs can be found at bankofmelbourne.com.au/insurance.

Allianz Australia Insurance Limited ABN 15 000 122 850 (Allianz) may pay a step-up commission and a profit share payment to Bank of Melbourne, and will fund marketing activities, for certain general insurance products which are issued by Allianz. The amounts are calculated either by reference to annual profits earned by Allianz for motor insurance premiums or as a percentage of total annual premiums for certain general insurance products, as applicable. You may request further particulars of the benefits by calling us on 1800 825 866.

If you're referred to us for Home and Contents Insurance (including Landlord Insurance), Bank of Melbourne may pay the referrer up to $250 (plus GST) per Home and Contents Insurance policy on initial issue only.

From time to time, Bank of Melbourne and other members of the Westpac Group may pay fees to referrers. If you are referred to Bank of Melbourne for your insurance needs, your referrer should provide you with details of these fees, or you can contact us for more information by using the contact details on the back page of this Guide.

The amounts we pay to our staff.

All of our employees receive a salary, superannuation, various employee benefits and may also be eligible for variable reward and other non-cash awards based on their performance.

Short term variable reward (STVR) includes cash and deferred awards, which are designed to recognise employees for outcomes achieved during the financial year. Other non-cash awards, such as gift vouchers, attendance at conferences, employee development and team building events and Westpac Performance Shares may also be awarded.

STVR and non-cash awards are used to recognise the contribution made by employees against agreed goals which may be both financial and non-financial in nature and are relevant for their role. The types of goals include, but are not limited to, financial (eg. sales or referrals of financial products and other products), behaviours in line with our Values and Service Promise, customer service, risk and compliance, people and corporate responsibility requirements.

STVR and non-cash awards are provided on a discretionary basis and may vary from time to time.

It is not possible to determine at any given time whether an employee will receive STVR and non-cash awards referred to above.

Information about our credit services and products.

Bank of Melbourne's consumer lending products include:

- credit cards,
- home loans,
- residential investment property loans, and
- personal loans.

Our general obligations.

As a credit provider, if we assess that a credit contract is unsuitable for you, we will not:

- enter into the credit contract with you, or
- increase the credit limit of the credit contract with you.

We refer to this assessment as the Suitability Assessment.

When will a credit contract be unsuitable?

A credit contract will be unsuitable if:

- the credit contract does not meet your requirements or objectives, or
- it is likely that you will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the credit contract, or
- it is likely that you could only comply with your financial obligations under the credit contract with substantial hardship.

How can you access a copy of a Suitability Assessment?

If your application for credit or an increase in credit has been approved, you can request a written copy of the Suitability Assessment by:

Phone: 1800 804 728

Email: SuitabilityAssessment@bankofmelbourne.com.au

We will provide you a copy of the assessment within the following time frames:

If your request is made:	We will give you your assessment:
Before the Credit Day*	As soon as possible after we receive your request
Up to 2 years after the Credit Day*	Within 7 business days after we receive your request
Between 2 and 7 years after the Credit Day*	Within 21 business days after we receive your request

* The Credit Day is the date the credit contract is entered into or the credit limit is increased.

We are not required to provide you with a copy of the assessment if the credit application or increase has been declined, or if the credit contract that your request relates to was entered into before 1 January 2011.

Liability for services.

We are regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA). As an APRA regulated entity, we are exempt from the compensation requirements in the Corporations Act 2001.

We nonetheless have professional indemnity insurance, which provides cover for claims that relate to the financial services that we and our representatives provide.

Neither Bank of Melbourne nor any other member of the Westpac Group (other than the relevant insurer) guarantees the insurance described in this Guide.

If you have a deposit account with us, you may be entitled to a payment under the Financial Claims Scheme (FCS). The FCS is run by the Australian Government to protect a customer's bank account deposits held in Australian Authorised Deposit-Taking Institutions (ADIs). Payments under the Financial Claims Scheme are subject to a limit for each customer. You can obtain more information about the Financial Claims Scheme at www.fcs.gov.au.

Privacy statement.

We collect personal information from you to process your application, provide you with your product or service, and manage your product or service. We may also use your information to comply with legislative or regulatory requirements in any jurisdiction, prevent fraud, crime or other activity that may cause harm in relation to our products or services, and help us run our business. We may also use your information to tell you about products or services we think may interest you.

If you do not provide all the information we request, we may need to reject your application or we may no longer be able to provide a product or service to you.

We may disclose your personal information to other members of the Westpac Group, anyone we engage to do something on our behalf, and other organisations that assist us with our business.

We may disclose your personal information to an entity which is located outside Australia. Details of the countries where the overseas recipients are likely to be located are in our privacy policy.

As a provider of financial services, we have obligations to disclose some personal information to government agencies and regulators in Australia, and in some cases offshore. We are not able to ensure that foreign government agencies or regulators will comply with Australian privacy laws, although they may have their own privacy laws. By using our products or services, you consent to these disclosures.

We are required or authorised to collect personal information from you by certain laws. Details of these laws are in our privacy policy.

Our privacy policy is available at bankofmelbourne.com.au or by calling 13 22 66.

It covers:

- How you can access the personal information we hold about you and ask for it to be corrected.
- How you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles or a registered privacy code and how we will deal with your complaint.
- How we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in more detail.

We will update our privacy policy from time to time.

We will use or disclose your personal information to contact you and send you information about products and services offered by the Westpac Group or its preferred suppliers. Please call us on 13 22 66 or visit any of our branches if you do not wish to receive marketing communications from us.

What to do if you have a problem or dispute.

If you're ever unhappy about something we've done – or perhaps not done – please give us the opportunity to put things right.

Throughout our complaints process, we will always listen to you, clarify your concerns and the solution you are seeking, so we can provide the help you need.

Issues that can't be solved immediately are referred to our dedicated Bank of Melbourne Customer Solutions team.

Our Customer Managers want to solve your complaint with care, find a solution as quickly as possible, and help to prevent similar issues from occurring again. They will provide you with regular progress updates and if we need some additional time or further information, we will always let you know.

Our aim is resolve your complaint within 5 working days.
