Data as at 7.30am. Change from previous trading day (excluding the SFE which is the change during the night session). Source: Bloomberg.

Main Themes: Bargain hunting, US election jitters and US stimulus gridlock were all at play on Friday night. In Europe, COVID concerns weighed heavily.

Share Markets: After two soft days, bargain hunters emerged in US markets. The Dow rose 1.3%, the S&P500 was up 1.6% and the Nasdaq was up 2.3%. Europe was mixed with the FTSE100 up 0.3% but mainland markets were down. The Dax fell 1.1% and the French CAC40 was down 0.7%.

Interest Rates: The largest moves on Friday were in Europe where German 10-year government bond yields fell 3 basis points to -0.53%. Their UK equivalent also saw yields fall 3 basis points, down to 0.19%. In the face of the pandemic, economic growth in Europe is struggling.

Foreign Exchange: AUD flirted with the lower bounds of the $US70 cent range as the USD moved a touch higher. The US dollar index rose from 94.3 to 94.6 on Friday.

Commodities: A quiet session for commodities. Copper and gold were a touch weaker as was oil. Coal and iron ore were steady as was the CRB index of commodity prices.

COVID-19: The UK has added London to its list of potential 'hot spots' lifting the probability that the capital could face new lockdown measures.

Australia: Australia's Federal budget deficit in 2019-20 came in at $85.3bn. Total receipts were $33.1bn lower than estimated in the December mid-year review. Cash payments were $57.7bn higher than estimated as economic support measures such as JobKeeper, JobSeeker and the Cash Boost were introduced in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

China: China's current account surplus rose sharply in Q2 to $US110.2bn. Under the weight of COVID-19, China reported a Q1 deficit of $33.7bn. In the four prior quarters, its current account surplus had been running between $US40-50bn.

Industrial profits rose 19.0% in the year to August and came on top of a 19.6% rise in the year to July. After a poor start to the year, in the face of COVID-19 pressures, output has increased while costs and fees have fallen. Profits remain 4.4% down on a year earlier.

Europe: No major economic data released.

New Zealand: No major economic data released.

United Kingdom: Consumer confidence remains weak in the UK. The latest GfK index of consumer sentiment came in at -25 for September, marginally better than the -27 reported in August. Back in May, the index was sitting at -36.

United States: Orders for durable goods rose 0.4% in August. This was below expectations and well below the 11.7% growth seen in July. Reduced orders for military equipment and motor vehicles kept orders below expectations. Durable goods orders were down 6.3% on a year earlier.

Reports emerged that the US has taken another step in its trade dealings with China by restricting US exports to a prominent Chinese chipmaker.
